THE REVIEW is entered at post office in Portland, Oregon, as mail matter of the second class under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Paroled to the Salvation Army Department, a man who has spent 25 years in prison for theft and whose face is known to the police of the nation, is an armed guard at the bullion dock in a western city.

$100.00 reward is offered for the conviction of the fiend who placed poisoned meat in my own home yard to kill and destroy my valuable prize dog, a small Maltese terrier. The Humane Society and a Mr. Fletcher of Portland also offers rewards. For particulars call 919 Mohawk street.

The brother Odd Fellows of Laurel Lodge 186, I. O. O. F., certainly with great credit entertained their sister Rebekahs in their hall on the evening of March 2nd, with many new features. The hall was well filled and all spoke sentiments of a "swell time." The man made lunch was also immense.—One who was there.

There's automobiles enough owned here to keep ten men busy painting them, and Walter Whetstone has already painted a good many. He is an experienced auto painter and does the work from $10 to $50 cheaper than Portland prices, it is said. He is located at 710 Pittsburg street, one block from the ferry. Run down and talk to him and see his work.

The Harlequin Club will give a banquet next Thursday evening in honor of those who have donated their time and energy toward making the entertainment to be given in Moose Hall March 17th a successful one. This banquet will be given in the parlors of the Congregational church at Portsmouth and will be considered the monthly social meeting of the club.—Reported.

A number of representatives of the Community Club appeared before the meeting of the school board last evening in an effort to find some means of securing the erection of a new high school building in the St. Johns district. The petition from the club was read by H. W. Bonham, stating that the present building is inadequate. Talks were also made by Dr. Borden, A. E. Jones, F. C. Knapp, C. O. Johnson, Mrs. Shaw, J. N. Edlefsen and F. P. Drinker. Board members unanimously voiced a desire to aid the district, but the present lack of funds was pointed out as a definite obstacle.

Whatever may be said of the Ford it is a popular car and gets there just the same.

For Baby's Sake! get one of our Baby Carriages.

Dear Mary—
I went over to see our old friend, Sally, the other day. You know she has twins. They are so cunning. But she is having a "time" with them. Jim is too stingy to buy her a new baby buggy and she is ashamed to use her old one in the day time. Don't you think Jim ought to be lashed? I do. If he had to take care of those kids he would get two baby buggies.

I'm angry, but not at you. Be good—HELEN.
P. S. And they have such nice baby buggies and go-carts, and so reasonable, at
